IAN STUART DONALDSON

Born 11th August 1958 Died 24th September 1993

Tragedy struck the Nationalist cause in England, Europe and around the world when Ian Stuart, vocalist with Skrewdriver, died in a freak car accident, along with an 18 year old Nationalist from Nottingham. Ian was one of the giants of the Nationalist music scene and had kept his beliefs despite huge media pressure, imprisonment and violence from the enemy.

Ian's lyrics from the earliest days in the 70's, up until the time of his death have inspired Nationalists around the world and although many did not have the chance to meet him, the loss is great nonetheless, for he was a brother and a great Comrade to many through his music.

Whatever happens in the future within the Nationalist music scene there will never be the like of Ian Stuart again. Let us take heart from his music and from his example of never standing down. Let us carry on, as he would have wanted us to do, and continue to fight for our native lands. Let us never take the easy way out - through sacrifice and struggle will come our victory.

Ian Stuart; gone but never forgotten. Your spirit lives on. God bless.

The following article was written by Ian Stuart whilst in prison and appeared in (the now defunct) National Front News issue 76 (1986):

EUROPE OF THE PEOPLES

Today, Europe is at its lowest ebb. The Common Market creates suspicion and dislike amongst its member countries. This ridiculous situation is dividing a former great area of world importance.

If the Common Market was an institution that created closer ties within Europe, it wouldn't be tolerated by the Superpowers. As it is, both the USA and Soviet Empire must be sitting back, doubled up with laughter as petty squabbles split any inspiring hopes of European unity.

NATIONALISTS

The only spark of hope for Europe (and fear for the Superpowers) is in the ever increasing number of people flocking to European Nationalist Movements. And the Superpowers realise that Nationalism is the only threat to their seemingly unbreakable hold over European freedom.

Eventually, when Europe as a whole demands freedom, we can start to create a viable alternative to both Big Business and Marxism. When this happens, Europe will indeed be a far better place to live in.

Mutual respect, strength, honesty, and pride in the New European Order would be the lessons taught to future generations. I think that videos of the multi-racial, drug-ridden, Capitalist countries - and the appalling suffering of the people in Communist-occupied countries - would be enough to warn people about the true extent of these two evils.

PATRIOTIC

In a 'Europe of the Peoples', care would be taken to ensure that National festivals and patriotic historical events, are celebrated. For example, our own St. George's Day, St. Andrew's Day, St. Patrick's Day and St. David's Day would be National holidays, the same way as the Izerbedevaapt with its 'No More Brothers' Wars' theme is celebrated in the Flemish-speaking part of Belgium. These days would be ones of Patriotism and National Pride.

FUTURE

We have a future in the 'Europe of the Peoples'. People would no longer be just looking after No. 1. And uncertainty would be just a thing of the past. We would be heralding the start of a New Era. An era of peace, prosperity, pride, and above all, hope. This would be a New Dawn of greatness for our 'Europe of the Peoples'. Indeed, it would be a great victory, worth both fighting and dying for.

GIG REVIEW

MADNESS. CARDIFF INTERNATIONAL ARENA 19/12/93.

Ever notice that ticket touts end up selling tickets for less than the original price when the gig starts? Ha ha. Carter U.S.M. were on first and played a 'blinding' set, although I'm still unhappy that one of their songs mentions 'Ruby Tuesday' (a classic song that modern upstarts should not even dare refer to). The biggest cheer for them came when their backdrop was taken down when they finished.

The mostly White crowd went wild as Madness took stage. The fans were mainly of the 25 - 30 age group with a few 'children' thrown in. As I'm not the type to take a pen with me I can't remember what order they did the songs in, but who cares. They played them all and we stomped to them all. As the crowd counted the 'one, two, three' bit in one of their songs (whose title escapes me) I noticed quite a few others in the crowd using a thumb and two fingers to count with, thus leaving alot of German looking salutes in the air. The gig ended with Night Boat to Cairo.

Some folk who have seen Madness recently have said they are no good anymore. All I can say to this is why don't you come and see them in Wales next time as the Welshness of the crowd is very important.

On the bus going home a gang of young (17 - 22 years of age) Blacks upstairs gave a White couple alot of abuse, which ended in a fight. As the Blacks were shouting alot of abuse and anti-White stuff, a few folk downstairs thought it was me being attacked, and came up to lend me a hand. In no time at all we had won the day. This shows that some of the Whites who will drink with Leroy down the pub ('Because he's OK') will still fight on the right side from time to time.

BOUNCY TIGGER.

WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA

When South Africa had apartheid, which simply means "separate development", TV news reports always avoided using the English translation, preferring instead to mispronounce the Afrikaans word as "apart-hate". Having thus done their bit to undermine support for the last civilised country in sub-Saharan Africa, the liberals have suddenly decided to use the English translations of at least one Afrikaans word. Reports of rallies by the Communist/Jewish Inspired African National Congress talk coyly of thousands of young blacks chanting "One Farmer - One Bullet".

This sounds unpleasant to most people, but is designed to be understood as the result of a quarrel between the blacks and White farmers who have, it is implied, "stolen" their land. In fact, in many parts of South Africa, the Whites arrived before the blacks, who were spreading down from the north, wiping out the indigenous Hottentot Bushmen as they came. And, of course, the chant does not use the English word "farmer", but the Afrikaans word "Boer". So we are not talking about a threat against a small number of farmers. "One Boer - One Bullet" is a call for the slaughter of an entire people.

BULWARK

The liberals and Race-traitors in the media are trying to hide the fact, but South Africa is on the brink of a Race war which will make Croatia and Bosnia look like a playground scuffle. Part of the reason is the natural Racial animosity which builds up whenever different peoples share the same territory. But it is also the result of the alliance between the Communist ANC and the New World Order Capitalists who have financed them for years. Their common aim is to destroy the possibility of ethnic differences and tribal or national traditions providing a bulwark against the ruthless exploitation of the masses for their private Power and Profit.

In South Africa, this means that they must destroy not only the Boers - "the White tribe of Africa" - but also the proud warrior Zulus. The coming battle isn't simply about who rules, it is about the right of small nations - black as well as White - to exist and to decide their own futures.

Of course, when it all explodes, the media liars will portray it as the final struggle between native blacks and White exploiters. When you think of the racial violence that last year's Los Angeles riots provoked in Britain, with young Asians, as well as blacks, attacking Whites in dozens of mainly unreported incidents, the result of a televised South African Race war on our own streets are all too predictable. So the coming explosion in South Africa will have a direct impact on Nationalists in Britain and elsewhere in Europe, with new opportunities and new dangers at home.

IN S.AFRICA THE MARXIST FORCES HAVE BEEN EMBRACED BY THE POWER OF THE DOLLAR.

"WHITE INTERNATIONAL"?

It will also create a new challenge at an international level. Hundreds of National Revolutionaries from all over the White world have been fighting in Croatia against the Communist Serbs and cynical US/NWO manipulation. Hardline Boer patriots preparing for an attempt to create their own all-White homeland have already announced that they believe that they will need foreign volunteers in the near future. This looks set to be the next phase in the creation of an unofficial army of National Revolutionary volunteers prepared to fight to defend national identity against the One Worlders wherever there is resistance to their evil nightmare.

Foreign volunteers, mainly from Germany and Ireland, fought with distinction for the Boers in their turn-of-the-century struggle against the rule of Gold (then in the gulf of the British Empire). Now the Boers are on the frontline again. For the English especially, there is now a chance to right the old wrongs by joining them. Some may help with the fund-raising and relief work which may become necessary. Others may want to join the fight personally. But volunteers without military training are of little use. Will there be an increase in applications to join the Territorial Army over the next few months? Or will so-called "Nationalists" stay put and watch it all from the comfort of their armchairs?

*"First they came for the Lithuanians, but I didn't help, because I was not a Lithuanian.
Then they came for the Croats, but I didn't go, because I was not a Croat.
Then they came for the Boers, but I didn't fight, because I was not a Boer.
... and then they came for my people ... and there was nobody left to fight for us."*

A BACKGROUND TO THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

(Taken from a Boer State Movement leaflet)

The Transvaal Republic came into being in 1852 upon the signing of the Sand River Convention between the Boer representatives and Britain and the Orange Free State likewise in 1854 at the Bloemfontein Convention.

These Boer States were sovereign Independent States and diplomatic representatives and ambassadors of all the leading States of the world represented their countries in Pretoria (Transvaal capital) and Bloemfontein (Orange Free State capital). The Transvaal Republic included the former Republic of Vryheid which was incorporated in the Transvaal in 1888.

In 1880 Britain attacked the Transvaal Republic in order to annexe it into the then expanding imperialist British Empire but the British were soundly defeated at the battles of Laings, Nek, Ingogo and Majuba and the Transvaal retained its freedom.

In 1886 gold was discovered in the Transvaal and immediately the British were back. With the great money power of the British war criminal Cecil Rhodes (the man who crooked the black chieftain Lubengula out of his land to establish Rhodesia) and his henchmen Alfred Milner and Starr Jameson, a raid was organised in 1896 to hijack the Transvaal State. This ill fated pirate expedition was easily foiled by the Boers and Starr Jameson was made prisoner of war.

When the British noted that our Republics were not going to be such easy prey they organised a massive war effort in the year 1899 and more than 450,000 British, Australian, Canadian and New Zealand troops were brought to South Africa in order to destroy our independent nationhood.

This war, the Boer War, was in every sense the first total war in modern history. Our Boer population numbered only 180,000 people of all ages and our mobilised forces numbered a paltry 60,000 men which included men in their seventies as well as boys from the ages of nine and ten.

The British launched a three pronged attack against our country and to their great surprise we inflicted the gravest defeats upon their armies. The battles of Colenso, Stormberg, Magersfontein, Spioenkop, Dalmanutha, Bakenlaagte, Sannaspos, Ysterspruit, Noolgedacht and Tweebosch and many others were glorious Boer victories.

The Boer State consisting of the former internationally recognized Republics of Transvaal, Orange Free State and Vryheid.

When the British realised they could not win a military victory they resorted to genocide of our women and children in order to break our resistance. The genocide campaign was accompanied by a scorched earth offensive and during these brutal campaigns ALL of our homesteads and farms were burnt, ALL cattle destroyed, ALL crops destroyed and ALL women and children herded into concentration camps. More than 27,000 women and children died in these genocide camps, the first of their kind in modern history.

In 1902 we could resist no longer and had to give up our freedom. The barbaric acts of the British war criminals Rhodes, Milner, Jameson, Roberts, Kitchener, Lyttelton, Benson, Baillie, and many others were too much to endure.

More misfortunes for our people followed when the leading British war criminal, Alfred Milner, engineered the creation of the Union of South Africa out of an alliance of all the British colonies in Southern Africa plus our former Boer Republics of Transvaal, Free State and Vryheid, in 1910. As a vanquished nation we could not prevent this development.

This concoction of a State has no equal in the entire world, being a State containing 15 main national groups and nations WITHOUT any proper territorial delineation whatsoever as it exists in the EEC in Europe. The Union of South Africa was renamed the Republic of South Africa in 1961. This British imperialist creation is what is known today as the the apartheid regime of South Africa.

TELEVISION: THE ENEMY WITHIN (THE HOME)

THE TELEVISION has long been attacked by Nationalists. Some call it "the electronic Jew", ever-present in the corner espousing the system's destructive values. One only has to look through a TV magazine to find programmes on homosexuals; degeneracy; race-mixing and/or "racism" etc. etc. There's rarely a programme that doesn't attack decent family values.

WE WERE WARNED

We've had warnings of the power of television. The novels 1984 and Fahrenheit 451 gave chilling warnings about the power of the TV over family life and the lives of individuals. Fahrenheit 451 was spot on when it described 'The Family' - a made-up entity that everyone watched whilst the real family floundered. This was a foresight of the soap operas of today.

The influence of soap operas should be obvious to all. There are a growing number of people who are addicted to one or more soap operas. The characters become all too real to them and they embroil themselves in the (so unreal) plots, whilst ignoring what goes on under their very noses in their own families and neighbourhoods.

The TV supplies families and neighbourhoods for us without the hassle of leaving our front doors - even without leaving our comfy chairs.

THE VALUES

To most people these soaps are just easy viewing; something to watch with a nice cup of tea after a long day at work - perhaps not to be taken so seriously (though they'll still get angry if you forget to set the video to record it when they have to work late); but the real danger comes from the values these soaps espouse.

The soaps have regular dramatic periods (because we all know real life is just too boring) and the viewer is dragged through teenage pregnancies, homosexual "relationships", racism etc. And of course, the viewer is always made to feel that things like abortion, homosexuality and race-mixing are not only right but morally correct, whilst those who oppose such things (that's you and me dear reader) are evil maniacs who need locking up in camps or killing en masse (what holocaust, oy vey).

So the soap opera is obviously obnoxious, but there are many such bad things on 'the box'.

THE NEWS

Every Nationalist knows how biased the news reports are. But ask Joe Bloggs and he'll tell you "...the newspapers are biased to one degree or another, but the TV's fair enough..." But why should that be the case? It stands to reason that the BBC is run by the government/State and so would oppose what the State opposes. Plus all the journalists on the BBC (and other TV channels) belong to the National Union of Journalists (NUJ) who have an open policy of either ignoring "racists" or slandering them.

So the news programmes pick and choose what should and shouldn't be reported and to what extent. For example - the news shows us pictures of Africans dying by the thousands each year because of droughts - but it doesn't tell us that the banks and National Debts are to blame and that National Debts should be repudiated by all Nations. It is the banks that cause these droughts and no amount of 'Live Aids' will stop the droughts. But the news programmes won't tell us that.

EQUALS?

The other thing the news programmes tend to do when reporting on important matters such as abortion, is present both sides of the argument as equals. They have no obligation to present what is morally corrupt and absolutely wrong such as dungaree-clad lesbians demanding murder (abortion) on demand, but do so time and time again.

The news programmes blast the watcher with info from all over the world - much of which isn't essential, whilst all too many viewers don't know the essentials of what is going on, on their own doorstep. After all, what need to know of striking fishermen in Indonesia when the UK's National Debt is to blame for crippling taxes, inflation economic collapse and depression; or when the multi-racial experiment has descended into muggings, rapings and drug gang shoot-outs? The essentials are overlooked.

These are just a few points on which the news programmes are flawed.

ADVERTS

One of the other things wrong with TV are the adverts. It stands to reason that if a commodity is good, word will spread (by word of mouth) and demand will increase. That's how it should work anyway - but not in this TV land.

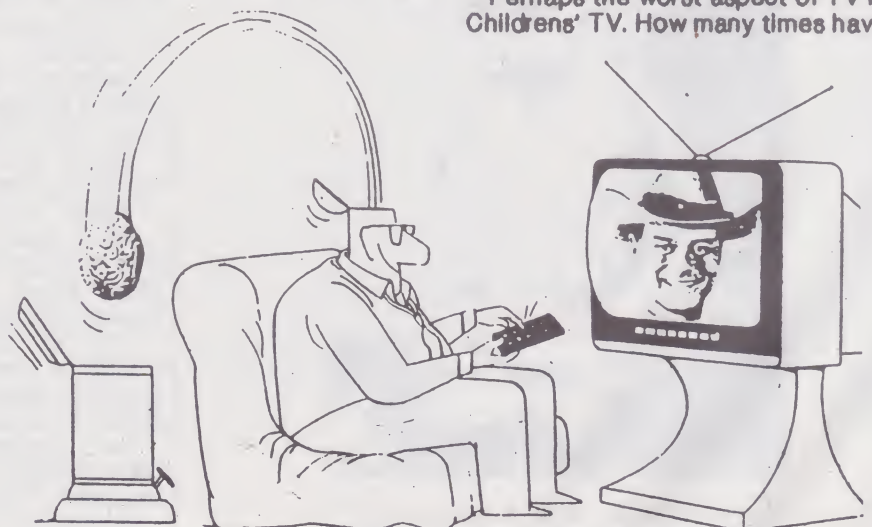

We are bombarded by pictures of various objects, all put over to make us go out and buy them, even if they are complete rubbish. (Remember how 'Saatchi and Saatchi' were employed by the Conservative Party to enhance their TV image in election broadcasts?) Yes reader, you too could own that lovely quacking duck espresso machine/paper weight painted gold.

One only has to think of pet food or washing powder to see how pathetic the world of TV adverts is. How is it that every year the brand is "better than ever before" - 'yes new improved Chunder dog food is the best yet'. Are we to believe the stuff we've been buying before this was second rate rubbish?

It stands to reason that only poor produce and goods need to be pushed heavily through slick multi-million pound advertising on TV.

KIDDIES TV

Perhaps the worst aspect of TV is Childrens' TV. How many times have you visited a friends' home to see his/her children sat glued in front of the goggle-box taking in the garbage poured out through the Talmudic TV. I remember reading a few years back how one Nationalist came to the conclusion that the TV had no place in a Nationalist's home when he was visiting a Comrade, whose children were watching 'Sesame Street' (a hideous multi-racial American childrens' show) and his friends' defence was "it keeps them quiet".

Would we let our children play on main roads or watch horror or pornographic films if it kept them quiet? Certainly not! So why should we let them vegetate in front of the box taking in all the multi-racial consumer society rubbish.

BRAINWASHED

Our children are in danger of being brainwashed by the TV which can make impressionable young (and not so young) minds think that the horror society the State wants to create on our soil is some sort of 'dream come true'. No Nationalist should let their children watch TV.

In short we can say for certain that the TV is a power for evil in the very centre of our homes. Whether it's the hypnotic soap operas, the mind destroying game shows, the sleazy semi-pornographic films, the sickeningly liberal Judaic "Christian" Sunday shows, the adverts or the Childrens' TV - the television must be thrown out!

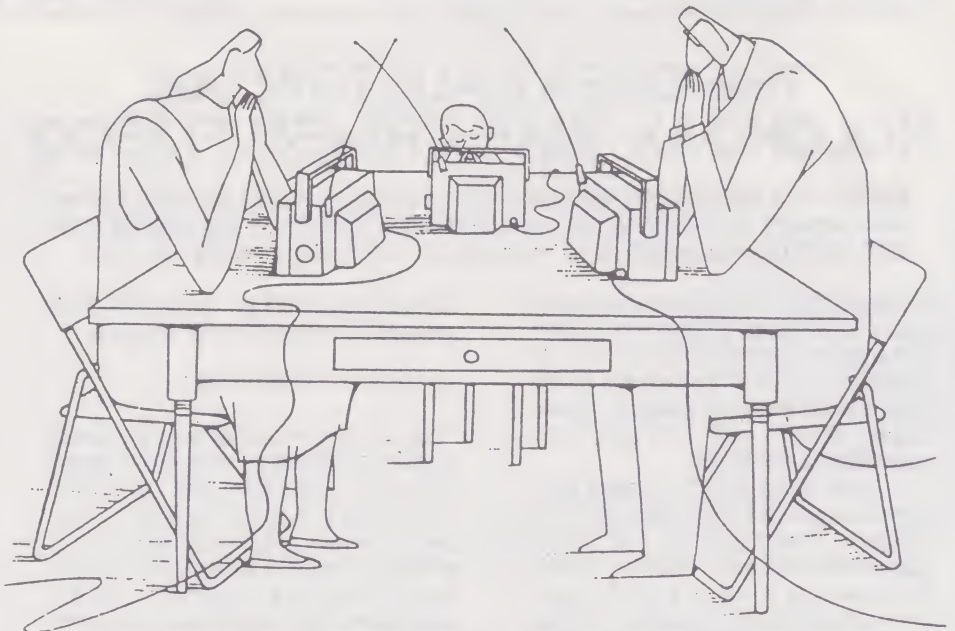

This is not some optional extra for Nationalists. This is a necessity if we are to regain our Traditional family values. This is a necessity if we are to regain our Communities. This is a necessity if we are to regain our National pride. This is a necessity if we are to regain our very self-esteem.

WE KNOW

We all know the TV is bad. We all know the box in the corner is one of the main enemies in our war. We all know the TV is responsible for the brainwashing of the formerly-civilised world. Are we to be hypocrites? Are we to attack the TV and yet harbour the enemy inside our very homes? If we do, then we cannot ever expect the respect of others, for we will not be practising what we preach.

The Nationalist Movement has at last began to practise what it preaches. We have long been talking of co-operation between European Nations and now we have 'Emergency Aid for Croatia' joining Nationalist forces in the UK, France, Germany, Italy and Croatia.

We have long been attacking usury and demanding interest-free banking and now we have 'The Distributist League' providing us with the start of that very system.

COMMUNITIES

We have long talked of the need of Nationalist self-sufficient Communities and now we have the example of the 'Rural Revolution' undertaken by Third Positionists on mainland Europe.

Yes, on a number of issues we have at last began to practise what we preach. Isn't it about time we all - every single one of us - did the same when it comes to the TV?

Are we to be like the silly hypocritical two-faced politician scum in Westminster who have destroyed these Isles behind a veneer of respectability? Are we to say one thing and do another? Comrade: the ball is in your court...

NO-ONE IN THEIR RIGHT MIND IS IN FAVOUR OF HOMOSEXUALITY.

It's both Immoral and unnatural. It has been condemned by Christianity, Islam and most religions. It sickens normal people and has no place in any decent society.

The Communists claim to speak for "the people" - the workers. So they no doubt oppose homosexuality then? After all, most workers oppose it and it is primarily a disease of the affluent degenerate middle and upper classes. Surprise, surprise though friends, the Reds are in favour of the vile practise of buggery.

MILITANT LABOUR want: The equalisation of the age of consent at 16. Yes, you read it right. They don't want to outlaw it, but encourage faggots to go after younger prey [point of interest - the leader of 'Third Way' (Patrick Harrington) a so-called nationalist group agreed on this point in an interview with Arena magazine (July/August '93) and so favours buggery and all it entails! TW members please take note]. ML also want poof books to be allowed into our schools in an attempt to make our children into faggots. They also want poofs to have the right not to declare that they have the HIV (AIDS) virus and so spread the disease even more (see our feature on poof doctors - page 10). In short, the Reds (we severely doubt if the other Red groups differ much in their approach from ML) want faggotdom to grow and spread like a vile cancer.

This is a big rod they've made which we must use to whack them over the head with. People find poofs revolting (I recall a poof march through Cardiff when one shopper on seeing the queers said "I wish I had a machine gun") and if we highlight the Reds involvement with the poofs - especially when they turn up at the workplace, at strikes etc. - we can turn the people strongly against them.

THE CANCER OF HOMOSEXUALITY AND DEGENERACY IS SPREADING...

... FIGHT BACK FOR FAITH, FAMILY AND NATION!

The Third Position has posters with this slogan on showing the grim reaper (with 'AIDS' written on him) as opposed to a normal, healthy family. To order copies, to put up along the local high street,

THE GREAT AUSTRALIAN HOLOHOAX 'WAR CRIMES' FIASCO

GIVEN THE PRESSURE now being exerted in this country for War Crimes trials against frail old men, the article below is timely. Let the powers here take heed of what happened in Australia and leave innocent old folk alone.

In Australia, the government has spent millions of dollars in an effort to hunt down and punish "nazi war criminals". The first show trials ended in all charges being dropped. Now, the 'nazihunters' are themselves under fire.

In 1987 then prime minister Bob Hawke rammed the infamous War Crimes Amendment Act down parliament's throat against strong objections from his own legal counsel and most Australian jurists.

The act established a special force with unlimited funds and power to implement the largest political witch-hunt in Australia's history. Within weeks of enactment, more than 800,000 Australians of German, Russian, Ukrainian, Hungarian, Slovenian, Croatian, Finnish and other Baltic origin were under police surveillance. Their phones were tapped, their mail opened and read and their homes searched.

Individuals were threatened that the only way they could avoid extradition to Israel and a possible death penalty or a life sentence in an Australian jail was to confess to "war crimes", thus avoiding the need for a trial, and for the prosecution to prove its charges.

ELDERLY TARGETED

The terror campaign was directed against Australian citizens in their late 70s and 80s and all their relatives and friends. The persecution led to the deaths of several elderly men and ruined many families who had to pay exorbitant legal expenses to defend the accused.

The act represented the final payment of Hawke to the Australian branch of Mossad (Israel's secret service) and its longtime Australian station chief Iai Leibler.

Leibler, with strong Betar (a little publicised terrorist organisation) connections, has persecuted Australian patriots for the last 40 years and has threatened successive Australian office holders with political destruction unless they adopted a 100% pro-Israel/Zionist policy.

With the major media of the Nation securely monopolised, Leibler's agenda appeared an easy task.

Of all the most abject flunkies of Zionism, Hawke was nonpareil. Leibler and his group had helped Hawke infiltrate the then Nationalist and Populist Labour Party back in the 1950s. With this help, Hawke was able to take control of the Australian labour unions. As a result, by the end of the 1950s, the Labour Party was in the hands of non-workers, non-Labour loyalists with ties to Leibler.

Presenting himself as a friend of the working man, Hawke was elected prime minister and immediately sponsored laws curtailing freedom of speech. It was Hawke who asked parliament to pass a law making it a crime for anyone to question the official holohoax '6 million' figure.

UNTOUCHED BY SCANDALS

Hawke presided over a continual series of financial scandals, but was able to escape serious political damage with the help of his friends. And for his services while in office, he was able to retire in luxury inconsistent with his salary as prime minister. His rewards included a multi-million dollar mansion and the position of an international influence pedlar.

Australian workers are now suffering the effects of the Hawke premiership, with a national unemployment rate of 12.5% and plunging living standards. They are just now realising they were royally shafted by the phoney labour man with the acquired worker's accent.

The War Crimes Amendment Act was Leibler's brainchild and was meant to be a blueprint for the rest of the world in pursuit of "nazi war criminals". Prosecutors from all over the world rushed to Australia to study this farce. The Australian establishment media acted as a cheer leading squad. Leibler was riding the crest of political power.

The official line from Leibler via the Hawke administration was that Australia is home to in excess of one million "nazi sympathisers" both native born and from Europe. Genuine civil rights activists,

WHOOOPS

During one of the trials, a star witness for the prosecution, one Mr. P. Melnik, dramatically pointed a finger from the stand at a man in the courtroom, identifying him as the perpetrator of a holocaust in Ukraine.

When asked by the defence whether he was certain this was the mass murderer, Melnik insisted that he would "never forget" the monster's face; that it was permanently engraved on his memory.

All in the courtroom turned to look at the elderly man seated in the gallery. The judge asked him to identify himself.

The man identified himself as Robert Carswell, an American lawyer from Texas. He said he had never been in Ukraine and was present because he had been invited by an Adelaide lawyer to observe the proceedings of Australian justice in the great holocaust trial.

At this point Carswell decided he had seen enough of Australian "justice" and returned to the USA.

Like the Canadians above, after the infamous holohoax trials, more and more Australians are realising that Zionists dominate the media which censors truth.

meanwhile, saw the act in more sinister terms than just chasing after 80-year-old alleged war criminals.

They saw it as an outright attack on freedom of speech and expression and a total suppression of academic freedom.

The commonwealth director of public prosecutions was ordered to give a blank cheque to the "nazi-hunters" and $40 million alone was spent in transporting plane-loads of alleged holocaust survivors from all over the world to Australia.

They traveled in first class luxury, and were housed in the best hotels, courtesy of the Australian taxpayer. And legions of lawyers got rich in the process.

THREE NETTED

After almost one million people lost their civil rights and had their privacy abolished, the grand "anti-nazi hunt" netted three elderly citizens: Heinrich Wagner, Ivan Polyukhovich and Mikolay Berezowsky.

All three were charged with "crimes against humanity". All were subjected to "trial and conviction" in the establishment media; all were given sinister nicknames such as "Ivan the Terrible" - yes they had one in Australia, too - and "Heinrich Himmler II". All suffered the pain of political persecution, financial loss and public odium whipped up by a relentless press.

Finally, after more than six years of the greatest travesty of justice in Australia's history, all charges were dropped and the great anti-nazi war trial came to an abrupt end.

PM Paul Keating, who had inherited the legal mess from Hawke, was finally compelled to end this expensive farce. More and more Labour supporters demanded an end to the financial drain on the treasury and what they saw would result in a catastrophic political backlash against their party.

Leibler was enraged at the prospect of this never-ending witch-hunt coming to such an ignominious conclusion - the prosecution having had to admit there was no case and never had been one and that the whole show trial was politically motivated. Leibler threatened Keating with political destruction, and observers immediately began counting the PM's days.

But it may be Leibler's 'Reign of Terror' is coming to an end. Australia's Populism is growing as more and more people are willing to denounce and oppose the terror tactics inflicted by "outside forces" on Australians - particularly when it hits them in the pocketbook.

Recent elections in the province of South Australia may be a harbinger. Hawke's party, the Labour Party, went from 23 seats to nine in the local parliament.

SCHINDLER'S LIST, SURVIVORS AND SHEKELS

CAN THE ZIONISTS ALIENATE THE NORMAL WORKING MAN BY OVER-MILKING THE 'HOLOCAUST'?

THE TV IS showing "documentaries" about the holohoax again, professional "survivors" (usually called Elle) are milking 'the market' with appearances at various 'anti-Nazi' rallies, which usually end with shouts of "NEVER AGAIN" and perhaps most importantly of all, 'Schindler's List' - Spielberg's film about the holohoax - has opened in the cinemas. Just think of all the money rolling into the holohoax profiteers' pockets. OY VEY!

All this pushing the holohoax down peoples' throats is surely a last ditch attempt before all the old hoaxer "survivors" (that's survivors in English) die. How ridiculous that they are attempting to convict innocent old men the world over of crimes "against humanity". This last frantic attempt to milk the holohoax for all they can could be the last straw for a few people.

Already the professionals are getting the next generation of survivors ready. Now children of Jewish "survivors" are trying to get reparations. Just how much longer can this madness go on for before the organised Zionists fall flat on their faces will be interesting to see.

Our people have been made to feel "guilty" for the holohoax for too long. Now our children will probably be made to feel "guilty" for their children's suffering. What a farce. Our children will be taught about the poor old "chosen few" when virtually all of them live in rich suburbia or in mansions and most newspapers, TV networks, news agencies, Hollywood etc. are owned, directly or indirectly, by this same "suffering chosen few".

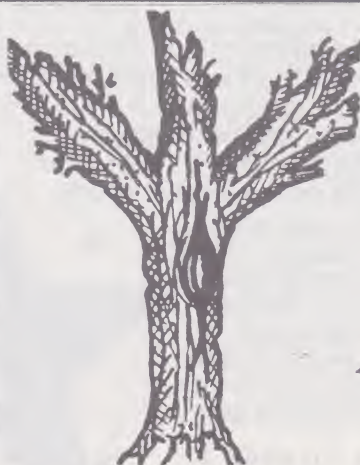

When our folk are sick of having their faces rubbed in the proverbial 'faeces' by organised Zionists whilst having to live on drug-ridden, immigrant infested council estates, then will our "leaders" have cause to fear the ordinary working man.

The more they push this ridiculous holohoax and the more the profiteers scoop up the shekels, the more they risk alienating the normal, God fearing families of these isles who are suffering NOW through the banking swindle, mass immigration, the collapse of morality, capitalist economics, and are growing more and more cold to "events" overseas, more than 50 years ago.

Now is the time for us to organise our communities and to raise alternative Nationalist structures such as home schooling, rural communities, family farms, workers' co-ops, guild systems and interest free banking. On to the National Revolution; it's now or never . . .

GREAT WHITE HOPE OR RED HERRING?

BE WARNED: Russia's "Nationalist" leader Zhirnovsky, as admitted by the English newspaper 'The Jewish Chronicle' is at least half-Jewish. He was also involved with (and perhaps still is) a Zionist "back to Israel" organisation. He is more than likely a tool of the New World Order; i.e. discrediting genuine Nationalists whilst allowing a more "moderate" liberal Capitalist 'free market' puppet to gain control and continue to enslave our cousins in 'Holy Mother Russia'. Remember; we must never take for granted things told to us by the alien controlled mass media.

In the USA a frightening trend has begun, with heterosexual Whites catching AIDS from homosexual 'health workers'. LLEWELYN AP HENRI looks at this worrying development and outlines various causes and cures to the AIDS problem.

Once again, though, the controlled mass media, liberals and the powerful queer lobby are resisting this common-sense proposal, arguing that it would "infringe the civil liberties" of homosexuals and get many of them thrown out of jobs. The same arguments are being used in Britain, where cases of health workers with AIDS are an increasingly common menace to ordinary patients.

But for how much longer? The more normal people who catch the disease from homosexual health workers or from sexual partners who have had previous contact with Africans, the more chance there is of AIDS getting a grip on the population as a whole. If that happens, not only will tens of thousands of people die of AIDS, the cost of caring for them will sentence thousands more to die because of a shortage of hospital beds and funds for the

The only sane answer is a massive programme of testing for the HIV virus. This should start with doctors, dentists and other health workers, then to be extended to all people in high risk areas, then to the entire population. Visitors to these islands from Africa, America and Asian countries already in the grip of the plague should also be tested automatically. Those found to be carriers could then be deported. Those of our people found to be HIV positive should be barred from jobs where they could spread the disease, and be required to wear some form of permanent identification. Those who refuse to do so should be quarantined (for example in a specially built camp on one of the now uninhabited Scottish Islands).

Here as in so many of the other problems facing our Nations, the only way anything is going to get done is if ordinary folk do it themselves. So the job of the National Revolutionary is to give the lead. Watch for scandals like known homosexuals being allowed to practise as doctors or dentists, and then use locally produced leaflets, posters, petitions etc. to stir local people into demanding changes. Similarly, the haunts of promiscuous homosexuals can be pressured in all sorts of ways to drive these creatures out of our communities. The restrictions of the Race Laws prevent suggestions as to warning people about the other main risk of infection and subsequent death.

DEFEND RACE AND NATION BOYCOTT

Davey from Edinburgh opened the debate on Celtic and folk music when he first wrote in to FC (see letters page FC #3) about the Scottish band RUNRIG. This was followed by an article on Folk Music, written by an FC distributor in South London (page 11 FC #4). Now a reader in Coventry takes us into the rich, vibrant world of Celtic music...

CELTIC REVIVAL - NOW THAT'S WHAT I CALL MUSIC

IN PREVIOUS ISSUES of 'Final Conflict' the musical interests of young people have been aired quite considerably. Notably the support expressed towards Nationalist Rock music. However, there is still a great deal to be said for the rise of interest by young people in Traditional Celtic music.

Celtic music is now appealing to a great many more people because of the various styles in which it is played. For many years Celtic music was limited to Folk Clubs and Bars, but now you can see Halls and Arenas full to capacity to see bands like the Scottish stars RUNRIG and CAPERCAILLIE and for Irish groups like THE POGUES, THE SAW DOCTORS and CLANNAD who command great audiences.

The styles of the bands mentioned only goes to underline the differences in musical style, but the essential Celtic ingredient is always present.

RUNRIG play Traditional Scottish music tempered with Rock and with Gaelic lyrics come across extremely impressively.

CAPERCAILLIE remain very traditional, with a pure Scottish sound and also sing much of their material in Gaelic. Although non-Gaelic speakers may find the lyrics hard to grasp, CAPERCAILLIE have found an acceptance that crosses National and language barriers.

THE POGUES need no introduction, now without their charismatic vocalist Shane McGowan, their music is very much punk influenced with traditional Irish instrumentation. Lyrically THE POGUES' songs are very much drink related which adds a touch of humour often missing from today's contemporary music.

THE SAW DOCTORS have taken much of the spotlight from THE POGUES. Their two latest albums "If This Is Rock n Roll I Want my Old Job Back" and "All the Way From Tuam" are really lively; again a touch of Rock with Irish instrumentation.

CLANNAD are possibly the main group that has spearheaded the Celtic Revival. They're a family based band from Co. Donegal and have been inspiring groups and individual performers for over 20 years. From the popular haunting "Theme From Harry's Game" to the soothing ballad "Coinleach Glas and Thomhair". Throughout CLANNAD's music you cannot fail to notice the deep tinge of sadness that prevails through the songs, adding somewhat to the feeling of inspiration that comes from the music.

As a recommended listening list I would suggest:

RUNRIG - "Searchlight"; "The Big Wheel".

CAPERCAILLIE - "Sidewalk"; "Delerium".

CLANNAD - "Magical Ring"; "Past Present".

THE POGUES - "The Best of the Pogues".

THE SAW DOCTORS - "If This Is Rock n Roll..."; "All the Way From Tuam".

CELTIC HEART - VARIOUS ARTISTS.

There are a great many that I have not mentioned, but who deserve recognition - artists like Maire Brennan (lead singer of CLANNAD), Enya, The Corries and The Proclaimers all have contributed a great deal to the revival of Celtic music.

I hope through this article I may have opened a window through which you can peer and indulge yourself with the beautiful music and songs which are in themselves essentially Celtic. Now that's what I call music!

ANAL REDS GET A HAMMERING IN GLOUCESTER

Skinheads and Nationalists from the Forest of Dean and Tewkesbury dealt the Anti Nazi League a blow when they went to see the film 'Romper Stomper' at the Guildhall Arts Centre in Gloucester. When they saw the limp-wristed ANAL degenerates they gave them a good kicking and a quick victory for the forces of good ensued. Unfortunately, due to a lack of communication with Gloucester Nationalists the latter were not present.

The ANAL drop outs bragged in the local press that they would continue to harass people going in to see the film. The Gloucester Nationalists were pleased to read this the following day as they were due to attend that evening, but the ANAL losers failed to show.

In the original flight one of the ANAL activists was taken to hospital. ANAL member Mark Tuskin said (in 'The Citizen' paper) "We were standing outside with placards before the film and suddenly 25 skinheads appeared. They attacked us and ripped up our placards".

Cathy Smith (another ANAL nose-wipe) moaned about taking the film off, but it's proved far more successful than average with audiences higher than usual.

Isn't it funny how lefty liberals scream about freedom of speech when faced with scum like Salman Rushdie or degenerate faggots, but when faced with what is hardly worse than most run of the mill films they start screaming for censorship.

It is only us who are un hypocritical as far as censorship is concerned; for we will censor, heavily. In a fair, free and just society there can be no room for homosexuality, abortion, Zionism, Marxism, Capitalism etc. To allow any of them is to allow the destruction of our people, which we could not allow.

REVIEWS

BY COLONEL REGINALD
SMYTHINGTON-FAULKNER

IT SEEMS LIKE a long time since the last issue of Final Conflict and I've certainly come across a lot of interesting goodies - both old and new - which I shall review for you as best I can, so please bear with me.

LITERATURE

I'll start with the literature I've come across. Newly published is 'A Third Positionist Reader' which is a compilation of essays. This timely 64 page booklet covers the family; Palestine; economics; Codreanu; and ruralism. It gives the reader a good grounding in these matters - key areas for any genuine Nationalist.

I recently re-read 'Political Soldier' Vol. 1 which for anyone who hasn't read it is an absolute corker, possibly one of the best pieces of Nationalist literature available, for it is short, sharp and to the point - we must build a Revolutionary elite if our 1% is to fight the enemy's 1% effectively and win over the 98% who are sheep. Well, I understand it's being reprinted and will probably be out by the time you're reading this. For your copy send £2 (£2.25 in Europe; £2.75 outside Europe) to FC.

MEMORIES OF DRESDEN

'Slaughterhouse 5' (ISBN 586 03328 9) is a piece of fiction in which the author, Kurt Vonnegut Jr., recounts his experiences in the firestorm of Dresden as an American P.O.W. through a character called Billy Pilgrim. Billy thinks he can travel back and forth in time and was taken to an alien planet (called Traftamadore). Is he mad or is it true? That's up to the reader. The interesting part of this book is that it calls Dresden the worst holocaust to have occurred in WW2 and tells how it was an open city full of Refugees and prisoners from all over Europe. Of course it pays lip service to the holocaust - but merely refers to soap and candles made from Jews - which even the Jews now admit never happened. It features some bad language, so isn't suitable for youngsters, but is an interesting read.

'The Spirit of Christmas' is a collection of essays, poems and stories by G.K. Chesterton on the subject of Christmas. It is an excellent book and in parts had me in fits of laughter (on the train too). Chesterton's ability to sum up matters clearly whilst being paradoxical is evident, as usual. Chesterton fans won't want to be without this one. It's 96 pages long. FC are selling it for £2.50 (£2.75 in Europe; £3.25 outside Europe).

'Golfing for Cats' is a book of short amusing pieces by columnist Alan Coren. Originally published in 1975 this is a real blast from the past: "I may be the victim of coons, Paks, Irish loonies, holty-tolty probably homosexual Cabinet Ministers what have sold out everything for private gain, flash Southern middleclass layabouts. . ." So says Norman a fictional disgruntled Labour party man. How bigoted. Can you imagine a columnist coming out with that today? There's also a cracking bit about liberal lefties lifting boycotts on many previously "fascist" countries and hence having parties that revolve around eating and drinking Greek or Portuguese produce - they're planing a Spanish one back in '75. A good old funny book, worth a read. (Coronet books - ISBN 0 340 20998 4).

Many people wonder why Nationalists bother attacking Freemasonry. After all it's just a mens' club with strange uniforms - like a grown ups' boy scouts. Isn't it? Well if you want to know what goes on behind the closed doors, you need to read 'Darkness Visible' by the Rev. W. Hannah. Rev. Hannah, a Church of England vicar tells us of the Masonic rituals and symbolry - many Masons have told him how accurate his book is. In fact many have used it as it's in plain English as opposed to the Masons' coded books. This book is essential if the Nationalist is to understand how Freemasonry is in fact heavily anti-Christian and how the upper echelons can take part in international power politics and create revolution, chaos and collapse whilst the lower echelons think they're merely in some sort of business club. This book is essential reading to Nationalists and low level Masons alike. Available for £10 from: Rising Books, BCM ITP, London, WC1N 3XX, England. (Cheques etc. payable to 'RISING BOOKS'). The broadsheet 'Freemason News' which touches upon such matters is available from FC for 80p inc. postage (£1 outside Europe).

"The light of a Master Mason is darkness visible." - Masonic ritual, Ceremony of Raising to the Third Degree.

MUSIC

A kind Spanish friend sent me a tape of two new Spanish releases on 'RATA TA TA' records. The first is by a band called 'Estripe Imperial' from Madrid and is a real humdinger. They're a very impressive band who handle their instruments well and though I don't know what the songs are about the 12" is worth getting purely from a musical viewpoint. This is Nationalist Oi music at its very best. A definite 10/10 from the Colonel for this one. A very promising band. I hope we hear more from them soon.

The second record is an LP by 'Klan' from Valencia. They are also an excellent Nationalist Oi band. Again, the lyrics mean very little to me as my Spanish is limited to 'Una cerveca por favor - gracias' and I've probably spelt that wrong! With these two excellent Nationalist bands from Spain and the likes of Fortress in Australia, Bound For Glory in the USA - it seems like we're promised decent Nationalist music in the future from around the world.

I had a tape by a band called 'Dutch SS' entitled 'Landstorm' sent to me. It's a mixture of pop, techno and all that rubbish but with Nazi words. If you like that sort of thing you can get one from: PO Box 3442, Covina, Ca., 91722, USA. Has got a little bad language on it so don't play it in front of kiddies. Includes 'I'm Too Nazi' - a take off of the poof 'Right Said Fred's' hit. A bit silly really. Attacks blacks etc. - but why copy their music? The Colonel doesn't like it.

PULLOVERS AND SANDALS

After years of searching I managed at last to pick up a copy of 'The Best of Folk' by The Mariners. The last time I'd played the record was working on a Comrades home with two other Nationalists (as Colonels are wont to do), one of whom has died and other 'disappeared' so I'd wanted it for sentimental as well as musical reasons - and what a little cracker it is. There are so many good songs on it I can't list them all, but there's the likes of 'Dirty Old Town', 'A-Roving', 'Greeneleaves' and the carved in stone 'Dalesman's Litany'. I remember a friend sitting atop the house roof with his hand shielding his eyes from the sun, looking back and forth whilst a chorus blasted "Looking for the Shoals O'Herrin". Timeless songs folks (or is that timeless folk songs?). Sadly hard to get a hold of now. Long live the LP - Death to CDs.

Some more folk music, but this time Irish, not English. An American Nationalist called Eric Owens has released a 6 track demo tape entitled 'FOLK THE SYSTEM' (and there's talk of a CD soon) which features 4 traditional Irish tunes and 2 folk songs about the Nationalist cause and its martyrs (Bob Mathews, the Weavers and Ian Stuart). Eric handles his instruments incredibly well and after FC has been pushing folk so much of late, it's good to have some decent Nationalist stuff out there. So help him out and buy a copy. It's well worth a blast. For a copy send $10 to: Eric Owens, PO Box 45866, Los Angeles, Ca. 90045-0866, USA. The only drawback is that the tape has an SS Death's Head on the cover and swastikas on the spine which limits the audience - otherwise it could easily be passed around your local pub or club or given to your gran for Christmas.

ALL THE WAY FROM THE IBERIAN PENINSULA IT'S ... DIVISION 250

1. What is the present line-up of DIVISION 250?

D250: The band was formed in Sept. 91 with this line up: Manolo- Vocals; Varis- Guitars; Jorge- Bass; Ramon- Drums.

2. Why did you decide to form a band and have you achieved what you set out to do?

D250: We decided to form a band because we think that music is a powerful weapon. At the moment in Spain there are no political bands like us. In Madrid there is a new band, but they aren't political like us. In Spain the Nationalist people had to listen to Nationalist music from England, Italy, France etc. Now they can hear it in Spanish. We think that we can explain our ideals with our music.

3. Was it essential for you to be a Nationalist band?

D250: If we want to be a Nationalist band, first of all we have to be proud of our Race and land. We think that to be a Nationalist band you have to have lyrics that speak about the problems of Europe, in a National Revolutionary way. We know that a band that has Nationalist musicians, but without political lyrics, is good; but we prefer the political bands.

4. What are the main problems facing Spain today? How would you set about curing Spain of these ills?

D250: There are a lot of problems in Spain, but we can say that they are European problems. Immigration, abortion, economic depression, drugs etc. We think the worst problem now is drugs. Spanish youth are 'into' drugs and now people, very stupid people, who think they are "the best" eat chemical drugs most of which make genetic changes which will damage our Race incredibly. Concerning the economy, Spain has been invaded by multinationals since the beginning of 1993. They sell things in Spain very cheaply. Then Spanish Industry will fall and the multinationals will put the prices up to make money again. It'll make Spanish people unemployed. About abortion I have no words to say! The 'Zionists' have done their work well in the minds of the people. Incredible! Women who prefer to kill their innocent babies; for hedonism! In Spain, Immigration isn't as bad as in the rest of Europe, but the people are becoming more racist and we hope that soon the problem will become bigger. To stop this problem we have to create a big revolution; the biggest in history...

5. Do you address these problems in your songs?

D250: Yes. we sing against abortion, Zionism, drugs etc. We sing about the conquest of America, about Ramiro Ledesma etc. and about the skinhead movement.

6. How many gigs have you played and with which bands?

D250: 14th March '92 in Valencia with No Remorse and Battle Zone. 18th April '92 in Milan with Peggior Amico, Storkraft, VBR and Gesta Bellica. 30th May in Barcelona with Peggior Amico. 21st June in Valencia alone and 27th March '93. We've had cancelled concerts in Rome, Barcelona and in Valencia too.

7. What do you think of:

A. The Gulf War in Iraq?

B. The war in former Yugoslavia?

D250: A: There are some words from Saddam which say 'European people you have to take the black glasses from your eyes that the Zionists have put there'. The Zionists, with the Yankees, give orders to our governments to go and kill people. Now the Zionist government is stronger than before.

B: I don't like Brothers' Wars. But perhaps Croatia will be the first Nationalist country in Europe.

8. What is the Nationalist Movement like now in Spain? Do you think there is room for improvement? If so, how?

D250: We think Nationalism is rising in Spain. The people are getting angry with the politicians and the hatred for Capitalism is larger than one or two years ago. The Racial problem is smaller than elsewhere, but the people are very racist. Of course in Spain we have Zionist manipulation, like in other countries. We think that in Spain there will be serious problems, very soon. About the people who are automatically called 'fascist', a lot of them know nothing, and we hate them like we hate the Capitalist people.

9. Are you affiliated to any Nationalist Movements?

D250: We are all in ACCION RADICAL. In our opinion the best group for youth in Spain.

10. What plans do you have for the future?

D250: For the moment we are waiting for our first album on Rebelles, but we don't know when it will be out.

11. Do you have any messages for our readers?

D250: Racial regards to the readers of Final Conflict. Never think that it is impossible; that there is nothing you can do.

TEACH YOURSELF NATIONALISM

NATIONALISM is a word which is used frequently by political activists all over the world, yet its meaning seems to vary greatly from one country to another. For some, Nationalism is just an extreme form of Conservatism; for others, it is all about military dictatorships; for yet others, it is a creed that promotes hatred of other peoples simply because they differ. The fact is that Nationalism is a greatly misunderstood view of the world simply because people claim they are Nationalists, or are labelled as such, when in fact they are nothing of the sort. It is essential, therefore, that in the coming months and years National Revolutionaries completely clear up these misconceptions, not through talk but through action.

NOT 'RIGHT WING'

In many respects it is easier for the beginner to come to a crude understanding of organic Nationalism by considering what Nationalism is NOT. It is widely believed that Nationalism is "right wing", or that it supports the immoral Capitalist system, sometimes called 'free enterprise' or Big Business. This is far from being the case. Revolutionary Nationalism does not lay claim to part of the Nation - ie. the right wing part - but to the entire Nation. As a result it rejects the labels "left" and "right" as wholly inadequate, and indeed, anti-Nationalist for such divisions divide the Nation against itself, and Nationalism is clearly a philosophy that aims at National unity.

At the same time as saying Nationalism represents the entire people, and seeks to serve the temporal and spiritual welfare of the entire community, it also makes clear that this welfare is paramount and therefore stands above any sectional interest. Capitalism is a creed and economic system which proclaims that the individualism is more important than the community, and therefore such a person has a right to seek his own advantage even at the very expense of the community. This is the very antithesis of Nationalism which maintains that the individual finds his highest temporal fulfillment within a vibrant community; the Common Good of All defines the true and objective interests of the individual.

Nationalism is positively differentiated from creeds like Capitalism and Communism, which dominate the modern world to its detriment, by its intrinsic anti-materialist stance. Capitalism and Communism both see people as economic units whose whole existence is geared to serving the economic machine. It reduces man to the mere level of an unfeeling, impersonal cog in a gigantic wheel going nowhere in particular. Thus Revolutionary Nationalism rejects this absurd view of man; it maintains that society must be organised in such a way that it serves the real needs of the people first. Man exists not to serve the machine, but to elevate the soul and seek the development of his personality.

SPIRITUAL CREED

Nationalism is first and foremost a Spiritual Creed. Its whole world view rests on the belief that the Spiritual spark in man is of greater value than the purely material. That this is so is easily demonstrated, for all the things that motivate the man of real worth are at base Spiritual: love of family; loyalty to the Nation; an abiding sense of honour; commitment to honesty and Truth.

The materialist, who rejects such a view of the world, is a person who thinks that the meaning of life can be measured or weighed, or contained in a test tube. If you cannot touch it or see it, it doesn't exist they argue. But for the Nationalist the sheer Spirituality of our beliefs defy such a childish and shallow method. For us it is evident that our creed is felt in our hearts and in our souls. It is the beating of the drums, and the fluttering of the flag; it is the flickering of torchlight in the black night, and the blood red sun sinking on the horizon. These are feelings that stir the soul and call us to action in the defence of the Nation. It is a world of beauty and imagination. It is a world worthy of our endeavours, of our sacrifices. It is a struggle that brings redemption.

CELTIC WARRIOR & BATTLE ZONE

NR. BRISTOL, SATURDAY,
25TH SEPTEMBER, 1993

After a few beers at the redirection point, a small convoy of cars and vans made their way to the pub where this concert was being held.

The concert wasn't advertised, but word was spread around and a good number of people turned up. Both bands played really well, as was to be expected. CW's drummer (the ugly one, Clarkey) was 'out of action' due to a leg injury gained in a car accident in Spain, so a more than able stand-in was there, who would've looked more at home playing for Metallica or Motorhead.

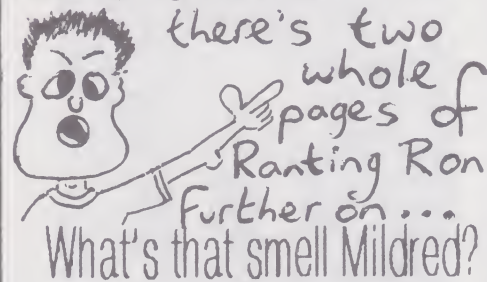

This was the first Saturday after the tragic death of Ian Stuart, so Paul Burnley read out the eulogy from the forthcoming issue of Blood & Honour, then a minute's silence was held in respect for a man who lived for the Nationalist cause.

The lights went out and silence reigned, only to be broken by some jerk near the bar who blew a 'raspberry'. To be frank, people like that drag Nationalism down and in my opinion should be kicked out of such gatherings.

There was some hassle, mostly caused by an individual who presumably can't handle his beer and took to bothering girls. Again these people have no place in our ranks as far as I'm concerned.

It's a shame because apart from these small incidents it was a good concert with both Celtic Warrior and Battle Zone playing blinding sets. Let's hope the losers don't bother going to such events in future.

Never mind reading
all this rubbish -

Guess who played for Anti Fascist Action (AFA) down at 'The Fridge' in darker Brixton? Yes, you guessed it - the Angelic Upstarts and Beggars ITA (amongst others). The Upstarts were involved with the NF back in their early days in the North East, but have since betrayed their roots and plumped for bad breath and poofers. The Beggars are as bad as always; staff at 'The Camden Palace' had to stifle giggles and guffaws as the whimps made complete baboons out of each other back in Sept. 93.

EATING HABITS OF THE HOUSE FLY
Dear pro-Yankee Scum,

please note that North and South Carolina are not in the USA, but are in fact a part of the Confederate States of America (CSA). Get it right in future or I will hit you with a rough textured house brick.

INDEPENDENT ULSTER

Greetings Comrades,

many thanks for the copy of Final Conflict safely received. I was surprised by the mag, and its contents. To be honest, I'd heard of you before, but mistakingly connected you with the "Third Way" crowd, a mistake on my behalf!

I especially enjoyed the Robert Mathews article, and overall it was one of the best 'mags' the "right" has produced.

It's good to see at least one group support an Independent Ulster, a subject close to my heart and one reason why I'm in here.

Sorry I can't offer you more than moral support, but keep up the good work. Compared to some of the other right-wing groups in the UK, it's refreshing to come across something like "FC".

All the Best,
"INVICTA" (unconquered),
LPW, Long Kesh, Ulster.

WATER UNDER THE BRIDGE?

Dear FC,

some water authorities in this country have already started to add sodium flouride to drinking water. Many people believe that this will reduce tooth decay. In the Yorkshire area, where the local authority is contemplating starting the flouridation of our water, there has been a great debate about it with the majority of people against it.

Over the last few months I have discovered the following facts about sodium flouride:

Medical effects; highly toxic, corrosive. Ingestion resulting in burning, redness. Eye contact results in pain, redness, watering, blurred vision. Respiration effected by an irritant cough, shortness of breath, pulmonary oedema, depression of the central nervous system.

Long term effects; long term exposure may lead to bone sclerosis, possible carcinogen and has been linked to a cancer of the liver (Angiosarcoma).

How can the government and health authorities be seriously advocating the addition of this highly toxic chemical to our drinking water supplies?

Concerned citizens should make their local water authorities consider the implications of adding sodium flouride in the context of the Control of Substances Hazardous to Health Regulations 1988.

The above regulations obviously preclude the legal addition of sodium flouride to drinking water.

The long term protection of the teeth of young people is the responsibility of parents, who should be teaching children how and when to clean their teeth. If it is necessary to supplement dental hygiene with flouride, this can be done with flouride toothpaste or tablets.

Finally we should forget the interests of Big Business, who would like to turn a by-product with little value into a "nice little earner" by adding chemicals to our drinking water.

Nationalist,
Yorkshire, England.

MAD FRENCH PERSONAGE

Dear FC,

What a fine organ (yuck, what a horrible term) FC #4 was, even though, YES. There was a warrior on the front, AND although it wasn't obvious I reckon that if I entangled all the fullstops in it I would find something not too dissimilar from a Gaddafi Wheel. Oh by the way, why does the back cover have a picture of Adolf Hitler as a young man on it? ie. without the tash.

Regards to all,
Compte de Toulon, France.

COTTON PICKIN' DUNGAREES

Dear FC,

my beloved is currently engrossed in our copy of FC. She says she hasn't got her "skinhead quotient" for the day!

RUMANIAN GIFTS

Dear FC,

I must complain about your article in FC #4 about Codreanu & the Iron Guard. Wales would've got through to the (football) World Cup if it weren't for the Rumanians knocking them out at the last minute. It's shameful that you gave the Rumanians space, Owain Glyndwr could take Codreanu any day.

RISING BOOKS

The new Rising Books catalogue is now available. For your copy send 2 first class stamps and a large self addressed envelope to: Rising Books, BCM ITP, London, WC1N 3XX.

Newly Available Books include:

THE IRON HEEL by Jack London.

This superb book first published in 1907 is a forerunner to the 'Turner Diaries'. Revolutionary 'Ernest Everhard' is captured and executed and seven centuries later a manuscript is brought to life and published.

The manuscript tells of a peoples' Revolution against the 'oligarchy' and the struggle and sacrifice needed for victory.

Jack London was violently anti-Capitalist and saw himself as a 'White Working Class Patriot'. Those among you who read this and find its attacks on the State and Capitalism too extreme - we suggest you renew your Tory party membership and stick to "Dialling D for Democracy".

£6 inc. p&p.

A THIRD POSITIONIST READER.

This isn't a 'Statement of Principles', but a booklet which looks at the spirit behind the Third Positionist Movement.

TPR is a collection of writings, including GK Chesterton on the home; a history of Palestine; Hilaire Belloc on economics; Codreanu and the Iron Guard; and the 'back to the land' Rural Revolution.

This booklet is essential reading for those wishing to know the very essence, the life blood, of the National Revolutionary cause.

AMERICA LOOKS SET TO FALL TO THE POWERFUL ZIONIST OCCUPATION GOVERNMENT (ZOG), BUT THEY'D RECKONED WITHOUT:

Is it a man? Is it a plane? NO! It's the ZOGBUSTERS

ZOG BUSTER 1

During the events at the Waco Massacre, Louis Beam attended the press/media conference with the police on behalf of the Jubilee newspaper.

When the question and answer farce began it became obvious that all the questions were intended to give the police an easy ride. However it all changed when well known White Separatist activist Beam stood up.

Beam's question was simple: "Are we heading towards a police state reminiscent of the Russian KGB?"

The police simply could not answer. Instead Beam was asked to leave. He refused and showed his press card. By now the cops were attempting to forcibly remove him, but by now the other reporters had sniffed a story. Beam appeared nation-wide on CNN TV channel. The next conference, Beam again attempted to attend (which was, as a journalist, his right) and he was charged with trespass and arrested. All over one question which the State could not answer - because they knew the answer: "Yes!"

ZOG BUSTER 2

Pastor Peters of the LaPorte Church of Christ just won't leave poor old ZOG alone. Hated by the Iron Heel State because of his militant Christian attitude towards Talmudic Judaism, he was prosecuted for printing 'Intolerance of Homosexuals is Prescribed in the Bible' (available from FC) because ZOG judged it to be political rather than religious and therefore violated tax instructions.

It now looks like Pastor Peters has won his fight to keep his church. Instead of lying low, he has now started his own shortwave radio show that may be listenable worldwide - telling listeners who the real enemies of Christianity are.

ANIMAL RIGHTS?

SINCE FINAL CONFLICT printed my article "The ALF, by a Nationalist Vegan" in Issue 2, all hell has broken loose. The 'Politically Correct' (PC) brigade have come out in force to try and silence us (the PV/VS). Threats of death and violence, articles and letters in a wide range of papers and attempts to deny us information we need for our activities are just the tip of the iceberg. From the Capitalists at the Daily Telegraph to the Anarchists at the so-called ALF Supporters Group; from Socialists in the Hunt Sabs to the Liberal Vegan Views; all have attacked us. None of this will stop us. Sadly some Nationalists have also been far from supportive, whilst others have been great.

The main point that the PC lot bring up is the introduction to my first article: "The ALF was founded on the sickening liberal idea that animals should have equal rights with humans." They claim that as I don't support this idea I can't help end animal abuse. Humans and animals are different. Animals should not have the right to vote or stand in elections (even if they would make better MPs) nor should they have the right to a council house (that goes for a lot of humans as well). With a lot of vegans it's us humans that need some rights. Most vegans could tell you that "the very softest, most luxurious leather comes from the unborn calf of a pregnant cow." (Arkangel number 2). But when it comes to abortion a lot of vegans (not all by a long way), particularly the PC lot, talk of "a group of cells" and not the unborn baby of a pregnant woman.

All animals put their own species first. It is quite natural for them to do so. It is quite natural for humans to do the same. The PC lot do not go along with this, they are therefore, in their terminology, being "speciesist" (quick Jethro get the sick bucket) towards their own kind. They can't even stick to their own sickening liberal ideas.

The Patriotic Vegan/Vegetarian Society now has a list of items for sale which includes stickers, booklets, copies of articles about us and our replies. For info. send two second class stamps (two IRC's from overseas) to: PV/VS, c/o BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

Ed's note: The PV/VS is an entirely separate entity from Final Conflict, so please don't write to us and ask for PV/VS stuff. We are not responsible for PV/VS materials.

A VEGAN DIET FOR A HEALTHY FOLK AND NATION by A. C. Rank.

Patriotic Vegan Vegetarian Society c/o BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England. This is a booklet about a very 'touchy' subject. Its intro says that it's not designed to win over lefty veggies to Nationalism, but to win over Nationalists to veganism. The booklet deals with emotive subjects in no uncertain manner. It looks at vivisection for cosmetic and medical purposes; eating meat inc. food poisoning and junk culture; eggs and dairy produce; fur and leather; "sport"; circuses, zoos etc.; wool and honey.

One point I'm not too happy about in this booklet is a quote from Himmler advocating human experiments as opposed to animal ones. Nothing too sinister there - it goes on today with skin patches etc., but this quote could be taken out of context by some pro-holocaust buffoons.

Some will dismiss this booklet as propaganda, others will agree in part and others may well take its message to heart. But one thing's for sure; it's worth a read and will hopefully spark off meaningful debate in Nationalist circles. This pocket sized (A6) 24 pager has some cracking cartoons too. Sausage sarnie anyone?

A Vegan Diet... costs 60p inc. postage (or 3, 2nd class stamps) from the PV/VS.

WILL THE REAL ~~HATE~~ GROUP PLEASE STAND UP?

Pastor P.J. Peters keeps knocking out material like the above cartoon which is why the American ZOG State wants to shut him up. He flies in the face of the sickening Judaeo-"Christianity" of Billy Graham & the TV liberal lot.

LEARNING FROM THE PAST

JOSE ANTONIO AND THE SPANISH FALANGE

José Antonio was the son of General Primo de Rivera, the dictator of Spain from 1923-1930. In the period after World War 1, Spain was in chaos. Big Business monopolies were buying up all the land and cutting their prices so that the peasants and farmers were being deprived of their income. As always in this sorry situation, Bolsheviks appeared and announced that 'class war' was the answer to all Spain's problems.

The radical left began to organise and arrange strikes throughout the country. Gen. Primo de Rivera stepped down and the 'right wing' was in chaos. The peoples' favourite was Gil Robles of the Catholic Conservative Confederation. However it soon became obvious that a more radical approach was needed.

A young man stepped forward who was prepared to sacrifice all for his beloved Spain. He was the son of the former dictator. A lawyer, José Antonio called for social justice, through national syndicalism with a revolutionary elite not chosen by birth or education but by work, faith and sacrifice.

The Bolsheviks (as in Russia and elsewhere) were incredibly anti-Christian and murdered thousands of priests and nuns, even digging up their bodies to put on display in the streets. Their attacks pushed people into joining the monarchist Carlists, or the Falange, who people claimed were half monk, half warrior and their women were said to remind the Spanish of the saintly Queen Isabella the Crusader, who bravely expelled the Jews from Spain in 1492 (the same year America was discovered).

The speeches José Antonio made were applauded by young and old, rich and poor alike. He rejected the class orientation, the atheism and the internationalism of the left, and called for a National Revolution on behalf of all 'producers'. The Falange recognised the justice of Marxist social criticism and were violently anti-capitalist in ideology. They knew the importance of family life and spoke of distributing the land in the form of individual farms. The young began to turn away from Gil Robles and joined the Falangists.

However, the left were also gaining strength and in February 1936 the 'Popular Front', a coalition of Communists, Anarchists and socialists took power. Immediately four members of the Falange were murdered and the organisation was outlawed. In just 70 days, 40 brave Falangists were killed in street fighting by enemy cowards.

José Antonio then ordered the movement to break up into cells and go 'underground'. Not surprisingly, Antonio was framed and imprisoned. At this time Bolshevik Russia sent their advisers to lead the Popular Front. Included in this group were Gen. Emilio Klinger (Lazar Stern), Kolzov (Ginsburg), Walter Krivitsky (Ghinsburg) and Ian Berzin - all being members of a certain racial/religious group which virtually led the Bolshevik movement.

On November the 13th 1936, José Antonio, his brother Miguel and sister-in-law Margerita were all charged with 'treason'. Being a lawyer, José Antonio was his own defence attorney. Despite the hostile crowd present, he defended them superbly, but the Reds were not to be denied their vengeance and they were sentenced to death on November the 20th, 1936.

When they stood against the wall in front of the firing squad, the Communists could not believe their bravery. Before each one was murdered they cried "Arriba España" (up with Spain).

José Antonio,
leader of the Spanish Falange

When José Antonio died, his fight for Christian Europe and a free Spain did not die with him. At all future Falangist ceremonies when the name call was held, his name was always called out and all the members cried out 'presente' for his spirit will always be present in the hearts of all National Revolutionaries - wherever they live. Faith, Family, Bread, Honour and Nation was the Battle Cry of José Antonio and the Falange - and it is ours too, as the spiritual descendants of the Falange.

When the Nationalists won the war, Franco realised how dangerous the Falangists were to the capitalists and Big Business. Therefore both the Falangists and the Carlists were given positions of no real power, a sad betrayal of the soldiers who gave their lives for a new Spain.

We salute Franco for ridding Spain of Bolshevism, but ideologically our hearts are with the Falange who, had they won, would have made sure that the liberal Masonic materialists would never have been allowed to take over Spain as they now have.

We must never forget the sacrifice of José Antonio and all the other Falangists who gave their lives for Spain and Europe. Every 20th November a rally is held in Madrid in memory of the Falange. On this day, fly the Spanish flag and tell your children of the brave Martyrs. We will never forget them and as we sacrifice all for our Nation and struggle for the moral regeneration of our land their example spurs us on.

"Don't cry mother, don't cry
Because your sons are going to war.
What matter that the body perish
When the soul triumphs at last in eternity?"

Falangist Song.

Michael Griffin

If, dear reader, you cast your mind back to 'The Ron Awards' in #3 of FC, you'll remember the goodie was a bloke called Michael Griffin who shot dead a doctor who'd carried out umpteen abortions. Well, according to US news reports Gunn "spent his life on the road, driving from clinic to clinic" to do as many abortions as he could and rake in as much money as possible.

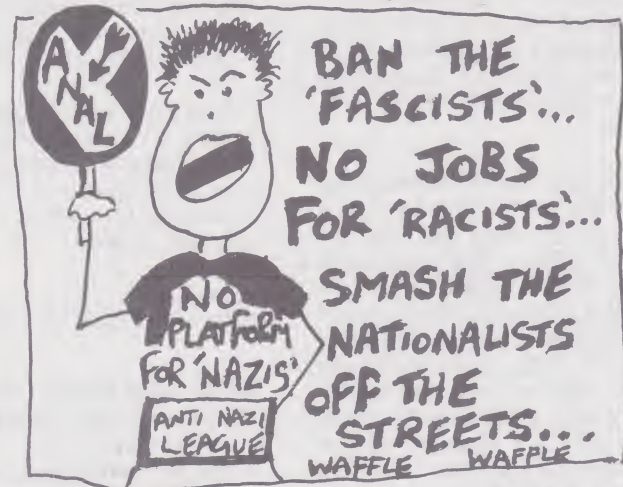

30 million American children have been killed by abortions. This is an all too real holocaust. And what do the liberals do? Talk about "freedom of choice". What a load of hypocritical crap. Future generations are being wiped out. There is no choice when it comes to the murder of millions of innocents.

Please write to Michael Griffin to show your support of what he did. American readers - send him U.S. Postal Money Orders. His address is: Michael Griffin, #INF-1732-01, Escambia County Jail, PO Box 17789, Pensacola, Florida 32522, USA.

When visiting Cardiff recently I engaged in an interesting discussion with a member of "Youth Against Racism in Europe" (YRE) - though she was in fact well into her thirties. Anyway, after lots of bleating about how great democracy is, I eventually got her to admit that if 80% of the people voted for repatriation she - as a wonderful democrat - would have to go along with it. How pathetic these people are. Anyone wanting to help Cardiff YRE can contact: Paul Richards, 30 Boverton St., Roath, Cardiff, CF2 5ES. His name and address appeared on an anti-Romper Stomper leaflet.

THE PYJAMA PARTY

Not content with having held an innocent man in jail for many years awaiting trial in little better than a theatre (for the titillation of the Israeli authorities and professional survivors), the bunch on the right here want him thrown out of America. "Well, my boy, if he's not guilty of one thing, he's Ukrainian, so he must be guilty of another. Oy oy oy." When are we going to have justice for old men who may or may not have fought the Communists or lived in German-controlled territory in World War 2? When are they going to be left in peace? What gives mad Zionists the right to hound them from one corner of the globe to another? It's time the pyjama parade packed its cases and 'got out of town'. We, the normal working class people, are fed up with Zionist agitators and Hollywood films telling us who is guilty of what. "Guilty schmilty my boy, oy vey." Israel Finkelstein-Burg-Survivor.

"Oy vey. How come the Rabbi gets the one with the most stripes?"

'Back Chat' with RANTING RON

"The only bit that makes Final Conflict worth buying." - Ron.

Ho ho ho. An Asian shop selling Kosher food cheaper than the neighbouring Jewish shops in Golders Green (London) has come under attack from local Jews. It has had boycotts telling Jews to "shop only at Jewish stores" and has been attacked on a number of occasions, including two arson attempts. Now, imagine if the shop were Jewish and the people boycotting it were Whites. OY VEY. The media would be full of it. "Holocaust" they'd be screaming. Even if it were an Asian shop in a White area, the police would swoop on the Whites and put them in jail for having the gall to protest. It certainly seems in this country that there is one law for one set of people and one law for another. One good thing came out of it all though, the Asian owner admitted that the Kosher trade is a "rip off".

THIS ISSUE'S THOUGHT
If any one lie with a man as with a woman, both have committed an abomination, let them be put to death: their blood be upon them. Leviticus 20:13 (Douay Rheims Ver.)

Yes, it's... THE RON AWARDS

This issue's "All Time Loser" award goes to all the witnesses in Jerusalem who pointed at John Demjanjuk and said "that's him" without a shadow of a doubt. They are all living bastards and would've been glad to see the innocent Demjanjuk jailed or even executed for being "Ivan the Terrible". It leaves you to wonder whether the character "Ivan the Terrible" actually existed - or is that another example of "victims" lying through their teeth?

This issue's "Big Thumbs Up" award is split between three people. The first winner is Paul Sykes who was arrested for driving while disqualified and with no insurance. What? Is Ron turning into a 'Class War' type and praising every petty offender as being working class anarchist heroes? No dear chums. Mr. Sykes is a real live hero because when sentenced to 40 hours community service, he said he'd rather go to jail - "I can do the work but the kids are going to have Radio One blurring out all day. I'd rather go to jail." Unfortunately he was persuaded to change his mind by his lawyer, but what a hero; striking a blow against the liberal waffle and 'monkey noises' that make up Radio One.

The other winners are the two chaps pictured below. They're members of the 'League of Welsh' elite, the Praetorian Guard. Well done lads - keep up the good work and don't let the liberals grind you down. "Fe Godwn Ni Eto" means "A pint of Brains and a Clarks ple p'ease."

DEAR JOHN

A few people have sent their charts in to FC, but as they don't have the room to print them I thought I'd print mine just to cheese you all off, so here goes:

The following letter appeared in the Sunday Telegraph 19/9/93: "I find objectionable the current usage that makes "homosexual" as it were the basic word with "heterosexual" as the opposite, usually equal and opposite. The part "hetero" means other or the other, supposing something that is thus differenced from something else. It is often used in the sense of a deviation from the norm - as heterodox deviates from orthodox. I am called heterosexual because I am not homosexual; if I have to be specified I should prefer to be "orthosexual", that is, normal or rightly sexed. It is the homosexual who is heterosexual." THE NEW MAN Vs. Left and Right

"The Movement from this day forward is going to encourage and build the New Man . . . And in order that he shall not die, this lord must be the servant of neither sectional interests, nor of class interests. Today's Movement, which is not a party, and could even be termed an anti-party, is neither of the Left nor of the Right. This is because the Right has as its objective the preservation of the economic system in spite of its injustice, and because the Left wish to subvert society wholly even if such subversion will destroy many good things in the process."

José Antonlo
Leader, Spanish Falange.
